

Coffee County Has Talent Audition Guidelines/Rules

1. Entrants must be at least 10 years of age.
2. Entrants must present an act that is suitable for all audiences.
3. First round auditions may be no longer than 3-4 minutes and entrants are required to bring their own backup materials if needed.
4. Entrants will be required to sign a release of information form since audition and event footage may be published in local media outlets and on websites.
5. Entrants must be able to perform at the final event currently scheduled for Friday, January 23, 2009.

How the Competition will be judged:

1. First round auditions will be held on Thursday, November 13th at the Forest Mill Church of Christ gymnasium from 2 PM-9 PM.
2. A panel of judges will judge all contestants based solely on the talent of that person/group.
3. If any judge is related in any way to a contestant, that judge will be recused of judging that particular person.
4. The panel of judges will decide the finalists who will appear at the final show.
5. Selected finalists may need to prepare more than one act for the final show.
6. Final winner will be decided by the votes of a different panel of judges on the night of the final show as well as by the audience. Each ticket holder will be allowed to cast one vote.
7. In the case of a tie, the judges will have the final say as to who is the winner of the first ($1,000), second ($500), and third ($250) prizes.

Please note: We reserve the right to cancel this event and return participants' fees should there not be enough interest. Also, winner may be asked to perform his/her talent at the Coffee County Children's Advocacy Center annual fundraising event in April as well as at various other events in the community.
